WORSHIP FOR THE LORD'S DAY

The beginning of the Prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

Meditation Before Worship

Love recognizes no barriers. It jumps hurdles, leaps fences, penetrates walls to arrive at its destination full of hope. -Maya Angelou

Introit

“Wherfore Do the Nations Rage”

* Call to Worship (Responsive)

How can we know the way to God?

Jesus is the way, and the truth, and the life.

Then we should be loving one another,

as God first loved us.

This is a new commandment

that we love one another with that love in our hearts, let us worship God.

* Hymn 306

“Blest Be the Tie That Binds”

DENNIS

* Prayer of Confession and Silent Confession (unison)

O Lord, we come to worship to declare our trust in You and rejoice in the light of Your love. In this time quiet our hearts to make us still in our spirits that we might know the wonder of who You are O God. Cleanse our hearts and forgive our sins so we may go out into the world and do Your work. In Christ's name...

* The Good News of God's Grace

Friends, hear and believe the good news of the Gospel!

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Litany of Installation

Leader: Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit
People: There are varieties of service, but the same Lord.
Leader: There are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in everyone.
People: To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.
Leader: To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit.
People: To another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit.
Leader: To another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.
People: All these are inspired by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as He wills.
Leader: Now you are the body of Christ, and individually members of Him.

Prayer for Illumination (10:30-Liturgist)

Nurturing God, we are hungry for Good News. Let the heavenly food of scripture nourish us today in the ways of eternal life, through Jesus Christ, the bread of heaven. Amen.

Scripture Reading Psalm 2 (10:30-Liturgist)

Why do the nations conspire, and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and his anointed, saying, "Let us burst their bonds asunder, and cast their cords from us." He who sits in the heavens laughs; the LORD has them in derision. Then he will speak to them in his wrath, and terrify them in his fury, saying, "I have set my king on Zion, my holy hill." I will tell of the decree of the LORD: He said to me, "You are my son; today I have begotten you. Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possession. You shall break them with a rod of iron, and dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel." Now therefore, O kings, be wise; be warned, O rulers of the earth. Serve the LORD with fear, with trembling kiss his feet, or he will be angry, and you will perish in the way; for his wrath is quickly kindled. Happy are all who take refuge in him.

Sharing Concerns (8:30)

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer (10:30-soloist, Justin Addicott)

Sermon Text Matthew 7:1-5 (Liturgist)

"Do not judge, so that you may not be judged. For the judgment you give will be the judgment you get, and the measure you give will be the measure you get. Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's eye but do not notice the log in your own eye? Or how can you say to your neighbor, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' while the log is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor's eye.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God our thanks and praise...

Communion (8:30)

* Affirmation of Faith – Apostles' Creed (in unison) (8:30)

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
