Meditation before Worship

My faith in Jesus Christ means that I trust him with my knowledge and my life. I trust the obstacles he has brought me to because he knows what I am capable of and the plans he has for me. A Bible verse that exemplifies my faith is, "When I am afraid, I put my trust in you." Psalm 56:3 – Olivia Noble

Prelude "No.3 Adagio non troppo in E major" Mendelssohn

Welcome and Announcements

Introit (10:30) "For the Beauty of the Earth" arr. Phillip Keveren

* Call to Worship (Responsive)

God created the eye for seeing

The ear for hearing

and the mind for thinking

He now invites us to see Him in others, to hear His word and understand His truth

Let us worship God (written by Rev. David T. Anderson, Colin's Grandfather.)

* Hymn "I the Lord of Sea and Sky" (insert)

*Unison Prayer of Confession and silent time of personal confession

Almighty God, we ask Your pardon for the sin of thanklessness. We have received Your gifts with gladness, but all too soon we have forgotten the giver. We have cried out to You in time of need but have neglected You in times of prosperity. You feed, heal, teach, and save us, but we always want more. God, forgive us, and help us to find such joy in Your loving kindness that we will always be thanking You, through Jesus Christ our Lord...(written by Rev. David T. Anderson,)

The Good News of God's Grace

Friends, hear and believe the good news of the Gospel!

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Anthem "It's Not Climbing Mountains" Daniel Barta

Prayer for Illumination

Dear God, be with us as we worship You. May the Word give us clarity for our lives and empower us through our days. Amen

Scripture Reading Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.' The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: 'Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!' Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: 'Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.' Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'

Sermon Text: Matthew 5:14-16

You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hidden. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.
